The majority of the students will be handling people in some moment of their careers and not necessarily in a human resources management capacity. As companies reduce their expenses, they can subcontract human resources to external suppliers. Or, in small companies, the Human Resources Department is sometimes small or non -existent, and managers of other departments have to carry out their own human resources management. Therefore, HRM teaching from the perspective of a general manager, in addition to an HR manager, provides more relevance to student careers and will give them a competitive advantage in the workplace.
